

American and French Revolution Anticipation Guide

Read the statements provided on the left side of the document. Utilizing your prior knowledge on these subjects, write briefly about your perspective on the statement and its truth.

Statements	Brief Perspective
The Enlightenment sparked ideals debated and later carried out through both the American and French Revolutions.
The statement “no taxation without representation” encompasses the entirety of these political revolutions.
Maximillian Robespierre held parallels to American revolutionary leaders.
Factions in each revolution had different tactics but overall maintained ideals promoted within the Enlightenment.
These revolutions led to the creation of two different government structures.	